Change in the Group Executive Committee of Dufry

Dufry informs that Xavier Rossinyol, presently Chief Operating Officer of Region 1 EMEA & Asia and member of the Group Executive Committee of Dufry Group, will step down from his current position on April 1st, 2015, and will continue his career outside Dufry Group.

Xavier Rossinyol joined Dufry in 2004 as Group Chief Financial Officer, a function he held until 2012. In July 2012, Xavier Rossinyol assumed the role of Chief Operating Officer EMEA and Asia. During his tenure at Dufry, Xavier Rossinyol was a key executive in the development of Dufry Group from a strategic and financial perspective. He contributed to transform Dufry into a true global retailer, and has made valuable contributions in building strong finance functions, and driving business development and performance in Asia and Europe.

The Board of Directors and Management of Dufry would like to thank Xavier Rossinyol for his outstanding commitment, dedication and performance over the past 11 years and wishes him all the best in his future endeavors.

Dufry will communicate a successor in due course.
